

Corey Bearak

Government & Public Affairs Counsel
(StrategicPublicPolicy.com)

and

Author (The Public Ought To Know)

speaks

Wednesday, September 2, 6:00-9:00 p.m., at The NonProfit Cafe. Detail below:

THE NONPROFIT CAFÉ, a place for nonprofits to share solutions and ideas.

Are you reaching out to your local politicians? Why? Why not? Corey Bearak, political and public policy strategist and author of "The Public Ought to Know" will explain the benefits to your nonprofit of knowing your politicians.

As always, after this stimulating topic, it will be your turn to participate in the advice circles. What is the advice circle? You'll give, and receive laser-focused specific nonprofit advice.

Join us on Wednesday September 2, from 6pm-9pm at The Thomas and Jeanne Elmezzi Foundation and Zone 126 who will be our hosts in Astoria. The address is 31-10 23rd Street, Ground Floor, Astoria, NY 11106. Register Here for \$30.

Feel free to share this with anyone in the nonprofit world; staff, board, and volunteers are always welcome. Vendors may only attend at my invitation.

Keep on making a difference,
