Clergy & Civic Leaders in Southeast Queens to Announce Support for Councilman I. Daneek Miller's Re-Election

Leading up to the final days of the election, clergy and civic leaders in Southeast Queens come together to support I. Daneek Miller's Re-Election

On Tuesday, September 5, 2017, clergy and civic leaders from Southeast Queens will endorse City Councilman I. Daneek Miller for re-election to represent the 27th Council District.

Leaders from churches, mosques, and synagogues from St. Albans, Hollis, Jamaica, Queens Village and Cambria Heights will gather at New Jerusalem Worship Center, 122-05 Smith Street in Jamaica to join their clergy and civic and community leaders to support Councilman's proven leadership and record of delivering for Southeast Queens.

After his 2013 election, Councilman Miller successfully advocated for an unprecedented infrastructure project representing some two-thirds of the agency's capital budget to mitigate flooding in Southeast Queens, and increased services for seniors and funding for cultural institutions for the entire district to enjoy.
